

RTSA PDAP FLOWCHART

ENGINEERS
AUSTRALIA

RTSA

- Step 1: Engineers Australia presents a seminar to RTSA members
(Delivered in the nominated capital cities, approx 1 hour + Q&A and delivered as part of the RTSA CPD offer)
- ↓
- Step 2: RTSA members nominate to participate in the RTSA PDAP
- Option A: Submits a PDAP application form for members of Engineers Australia
- OR
- Option B: Submits a PDAP application form for non-members of Engineers Australia
- OR
- Option C: RTSA Corporate Members nominate their staff to participant in the program (member number provided or Non Members to complete the PDAP application non-member form). Corporate members with 5 or more participants will sign a separate PDP)
- ↓
- Step 3: Engineers Australia registers the participants on the RTSA PDAP
Participants sent a PDAP information pack
- ↓
- Step 4: Participants nominate their mentor
(Individual participants will nominate a mentor from their workplace, if not available then RTSA will identify possible mentors. RTSA Corporate Members will identify mentors for their staff on the RTSA PDAP)
- ↓
- Step 5: Engineers Australia presents a Career Episode Writing workshop to RTSA PDAP participants and other interested RTSA members
(Delivered in the nominated capital cities, approx 2 hour + Q&A and delivered as part of the RTSA CPD offer – min number 5 participants)
- OR
- Workshops are available in-house to RTSA Corporate Members (min number 5 participants)
- ↓
- Step 6: RTSA PDAP participants submit verified Career Episode Reports (CERs)
(Sent to nominated Engineers Australia Assessors for assessment and feedback - on-going)
- ↓
- Step 7: Participants awarded RTSA PDAP certificates
(When completed the 5 endorsed competencies)
- ↓
- Step 8: Professional Interviews conducted for eligible participants to achieve chartered status
(Participants must have 5 endorsed competencies before they proceed to interview.)
- Note: Above workshops repeated annually.
Optional Mentors seminars and Chartered Status for Experienced Engineers may be arranged by RTSA, if sufficient demand exists.